Opened up into the lane in a race like this at OP April 23 but got weary late to end up 3rd; in his defense he used fuel early; trouble is, speed is his game so there's a worry he could do so again; at least there's a slight drop today and a couple bullet worked over this track indicates he likes it here; you just wonder if the distance is pushing it; all 3 sibs are winners including Big Beamster (38-4-2-8, $121K).

Stalked in an IND sprint May 7 before tiring in the lane; of course, you can always forgive a first run and he was a heavy favorite so somebody saw something they liked; with that under his belt he moves to a route and that sprint speed can have him forward; certainly bred all over to route, though it's a bit disconcerting they paid a fortune for him and are again willing to lose him for so little; 4 of 5 sibs to race are winners including Willoughby (20-7-3-4, $127K) and Sharp Aza Tack (21-5-2-3, $348K, 1 SW, 2 SPs).

Shown ability at times, though consistency hasn't been his hallmark; still, that OP run April 25 stacks up well here, though his next start here May 24 wasn't very pretty, albeit in slop; has some tactical speed which he'll need from this outside slot; does return as a gelding with a drop and if able to summon his 'A' game could have a say, though his lack of consistency makes that no small 'if', doesn't it?; 2 of 3 sibs are winners including Matheson (14-3-1-1, $60K). -Michael Hammersly

No tote action to date and this barn doesn't fire with that many really early on; the 4th horse on 2/28 (Gilded Bandit) hasn't lost since with BSF's paired at 17 points higher than earned ON 2/28; would use this number a good deal even though barn is a modest 3-for-46 over 5 years when going from SpWt to mdn claiming in dirt sprints.

Decent try when going 6 furlongs on this dirt, but in a race where closers got most of the spoils; winner of the 9/27 affair eventually won the Riley Allison Derby at Sunland in January with a Beyer 7 points higher; 12 returnees FROM the 9/27 affair were a lackluster 0-0-2-2 in their next starts; top two early speeds finished at the back on 11/5; gelding hasn't missed a work since the start of April for solid outfit.
