CLOSER LOOK: Off a layoff she successfully defended her Benson Memorial title at FG March 21 so she's come back well; remember, she cost a fortune so there were expectations from the start; that FG win shows she's back good as ever; that said, she likely needs to be even better vs. these, not to mention must deal with new surroundings and distance longer than anything she's seen before; only prior distance try (11fs in a G3 at AQU in the fall) saw her split the field, but that means she remains a question mark at this type of trip at this level.

Has handled some distance (10fs twice), though that came on synthetic; at least has proven turf form including being G2 SP; also reunited with Prat who was up for some of her best work early in her career; those last 2 good efforts at TP of a layoff show she's come back doing well and Maker's made a career of taking horses and moving them to long distance on turf with lots of success; that said, the distance is no small hurdle and save for that G2 SP as a 2yo things haven't gone so well in graded stakes (13th, 6th).

Kept to her task in a couple distance races at GP this year and wasn't disgraced; trouble is, she was never really a factor in those 2 and the gals who won those races are lined up against her again here; again, at least shown she handles the distance and her last win coincidentally came in a G3 on this course at this trip last fall, albeit on yielding turf; that could translate into giving her more respect if some rain comes.

Got her diploma here last fall so she handles this place; trouble is, she's never tried this type of distance or this type of company; her last start at FG Jan. 17 was her first in a stakes and she was beaten a long ways at 31-1; the hurdles seem even mo re substantial here; that said, she's been freshened, that win here last fall came off a freshening, and Walsh doesn't win at a high percentage because he puts his horses in the wrong spots; still, the return here and move to 12fs need result in a big mo ve forward for her to have a say.

Held good form from last spring into this winter; of course, that came primarily vs. lesser and all of it came going much shorter than this; at least 2 of her best races came in her longest races; been working steadily and you know the boys in blue don't waste starts so it's kinda interesting they put her in here; still, questions abound regarding the trip and level but if you still believe you'll get a much better price than you usually gets on her.

Been the top turf distaff stayer out West a couple seasons now and looks about as good as ever; nice as that is, being the top turf distaff stayer out West probably doesn't give you as much street cred as it might in other years; oh, that's not her fault but it's not as if she's been facing big power out West; only 4th in the G3 Dowager at this trip on this course in Nov. 2024 but that was just when she was starting to emerge so she's surely better now than she was then and if she ships well could very much have a say.

Could be she found her niche; oh, she always had ability but distance may be the key; remember, she got her diploma going 10fs on dirt, was then 3rd in the G1 Alabama (10fs) and her last 2, on turf, were distance races at GP where she won a G3 and was the n a good 4th at this trip in another G3; run just the 10 times so there's still room for growth and those last 2 prove distance, grass and this level suit her just fine; must turn the tables on Speed Shopper but obviously there's not much between them.

Not only a question mark in terms of distance, but on the footing; after all, she's only 5-0-1-1 on turf so you can't really say this ground is her forte, whereas most of her rivals can make such a boast; she's also never been beyond this distance and her lone distance race showing (10fs at WO) saw her well beaten; all that being said, you have a top barn and a top rider and Cox doesn't win at a high percentage because he puts his horses in the wrong spots so it's interesting he puts her in here; could it be he did so hoping this comes off?

You really have to like her progress since that long, long layoff from Feb. 2024 to May 2025; comes off 2 smart G3 turf distance efforts so the circumstances certainly suit, and while she's never run here she's handled CD dirt, ELP turf, SAR turf, SA turf, TP synthetic and GP turf so odds are she'll handle this place; has enough tactical speed she can keep the leaders in her sights; likely the one to beat, but with Just Basking in here (who nearly caught her last time) and top SoCal gal Mrs. Astor also in here there's no margin for error, if any. -Michael Hammersly
