CLOSER LOOK: How much has this filly matured since last being seen in September; isn't that what this race comes down to? she is even money on the morning line, right? yet only one of three sibs beat winners and that one only banked 44K; she has hit the board in all three starts but has yet to draw the rail; first Lasix can only help and team Mathis are 20% off a long layoff; a player for sure but we shall reserve the top of our betting pyramid for someone else.

Did little in her debut but you can see that, right? lone sibling is 3-2-0-0 and earned 35K; a better break is a good place to start; first Lasix and blinkers go hand in hand; new barn is 9% with recent acquisitions; homebred tries tougher but does so with a race under her belt.

Has more experience than everyone if you dig that; she has hit the board in half of her tries going this far; any chance that recent turf start helps shakes things up? breaking poorly had to hurt; this filly is capable of a decent Beyer and could grind her way to beating a few home today.

Is better on the turf or dirt? better sprinting or routing? she puts four races together so we know she is feeling good; she has some speed to help the trip and draws fine; a pair of recent works is just right; this is her first start without blinkers; she only cost 4K so connections are in the black all day long; if you told us that the 7 had speed and was going to press the rail runner then we would upgrade caches a little more; punchers chance it is.

Is by a 11% debut sire; her dam went 19-3-2-2 and earned 39K; two of four sibs won and both beat winners; one is 29-4-6-4 and earned 75K; the other is Speed King who is 9-3-1-0 and has earned 830K (won 2YO debut); a pair of April works are quite sharp in cluding a bullet; this filly draws best; she now sits atop our betting pyramid and dares anyone to knock her her throne. -Scott Ehlers

CLOSER LOOK: Los Al form is just fine and now this guy puts three races together; he goes from a shortened sprint to six furlongs and that should help as this guy has done most of his winning going six panels (11-4-0-2); he has won on this dirt and really digs his ne w barn; last chance for a good...no...great price? connections waste little time finding this guy a race; using.

Has only one win and that is the main knock; could he hold a pace advantage though? main speed foe draws next door so that hurts a little; what if this short freshening helps? team Bonde are 20% off this type of layoff; this gelding doesn't have to have the front end to run well but still figures to be forwardly placed; show bettors rejoice for a runner that has cashed on this dirt in 7 of 9 starts but a win might be just out of reach.

Adds a half furlong and that could help front end chances; maybe the 2 horse is a pace problem or maybe the 7 is but we are willing to take a shot with this guy on the front end; he ran a Beyer top only two back and then was just as good in his most recent; today's pace looks better than his most recent (note the C in last race running line that denotes a contested pace); trainer stats are good across the board; circle goes here.

Did run well 2, 4, and 6 back so maybe that bodes well for today; this guy has done most of his winning on this dirt; he loves six furlongs; breaking 8th of 10 from the rail in his most recent didn't help matters and he draws better today; main foe to our top pick neighbor.

Will be content to sit early; race flow is very fast so perhaps that hurts a tad; new barn is 12% off the claim and they end one race blinker experiment; yet to win on this dirt hurts a tad; it wasn't that long ago that this guy had some figs that figure; a poor break hurt last out while pulling three back the same; the price will entice while added half furlong a small plus; not impossible for a slice but we would want all of that 10-1 morning line.

Comes in fresh and has some speed; this gelding can fire fresh and draws outside main pace foes; this guy can pass runners so that is an option; is his upside best? we would think so; breaking 8th of 10 in his last race had to hurt; works are well spaced; we can't fault anyone that looks this way.

CLOSER LOOK: Back to 1 Mile for the 1st time since last fall where he beat 1 runner home on dirt; the way he's been rallying in sprints would think 1 Mile would be right up his alley but tired last fall on the SA green going this far; the-3-back winner repeated in a SA optional claimer with a 78 speed figure; contender.

Made the lead in his 3-back Beyer Top performance so would assume Hernandez who began this SA meet hot (4-for-12) would have him right on or close to it seeking stalking tactics did not pan out in latest when losing to Benny's Puzzle; posted his Beyer Top in his 1st ever 1 Mile start; the one to catch and beat.

Adds to the pace off latest loss when used early hoping for a more patient ride as a repeat of his 2-back exacta finishing when rallying from mid-pack would make him a major player here; needed last following almost 1 year away so should be sitting on an improved effort; the main issue to back on top is 3 times he's lost in a maiden claimer and now leaps back up to test MSW company.

Raced on the lead 2-back then the rating tactics did not pan out well for latest loss so would expect him to go all out for the lead today trying to steal it; rarely back a runner who has lost in a maiden claimer which he did 2-back and now racing in a M SW event; new rider is an upgrade trying to turn the tables on Benny's Puzzle who has twice handled him.
