Great sign of confidence from the rider of last 3 starts getting the call over Scottish Lassie; Grade 1 placed at today's distance over the track; she beat the runner-up finisher in the Mother Goose who Beyered 81 in a next out TAM 100K stakes triumph; seems to be enough speed signed on to help her late kick; the pick.

Stakes-placed colt has run well in three of his last five starts, including a couple of victories, and he's shown the versatility to adapt to any early pace scenario; he shows up for a barn that has been very live at this meeting, and if this race has to be taken off the turf, he'll have the look of a legitimate contender. -Brian Pochman

CLOSER LOOK: Just about everybody in here is sporting a pedigree for the trip (or reasonably near to it); rail runner dons blinkers again after nearly falling asleep back there over this distance without the head gear in latest; didn't make the races until age 4 but then tackled a series of stamina-building starts and still has the chance to gel over this marathon trip with blinkers back in place; colt just hasn't been finishing with the punch that is common to so many successful turfers.

Gelding gave solid account of himself in first try here and today the blinkers come off after that single experiment; latest wasn't terrible and he was in need of a race; possibly too soon to extend to this distance but may still be able to sit a trip and make inroads toward crunch time.

Gelding has been giving it the ol' college try for some time and then, finally, was dropped in for a tag where he finished in front only to be DQ'ed; this probably isn't the time to move back in with SpWt foes especially after the dull try going 11 furlongs in the 2-back run; not guessing that he's fast enough to content for top honors vs. the best of these.

Calumet runner has given solid account of himself over extended distances and is obviously in good hands; the 2-back winner returned to validate his Beyer when adding a point to the winning figure when back at 12 furlongs here on 7/5; the 5th horse on 5/23 had previously placed in a couple of graded turf stakes and been 5th in the Breeders' Cup Juvy Turf last fall - of course the same animal returned and took the Saranac here on 7/3 while boosting his Beyer by 10 points; trouble found this guy in latest and today offers more ground to overcome same; anticipating another running line much like the bulk of his others.

Not everybody is ready to fire over 9 furlongs at first asking and this barn is just 1-for-last-18 with turf debuters going long; barn scored with 2 of past 4 second-time starters going long on turf and barn is 1-0-1 / 2 when switching to Irad for 2nd st art; barn also 6-for-18 when using Irad on the lawn under any circumstances; has lots of improvement potential at a reasonable number.

Might be true that he needed both starts to date and that he may go a lot better with a semi-recent start under foot; $375K purchase would need a lot of improvement to menace these in the end though he is surely eligible for considerable improvement as a lightly-raced 3yo; barn and rider have lost 27 straight on turf together; dam was unraced and 2nd dam never won a race; only winning sibling missed by a length in a Gr. I going 9 furlongs on Gulfstream sod and was runner-up in 3 other graded stakes; we could see this one springing to life enough to threaten or down these.

First foal from an unraced dam while the 2nd dam was a solid turf miler who took a Gr. I in 4th start while undefeated to that point; debut wasn't terrible and a handful have returned to validate that figure while 2nd-out improvement could bring any resu lt here; J. Ortiz still interested; Pletcher at 18% over 5 years with 2nd-start turf routers and that includes 3 winners from past 6 such runners.
