Travelled eagerly on the rail and had to check after running up on horses heading to the far turn before getting weary in the stretch - which is understandable as was his first time out in 6 months; should benefit from that start but this level of competition is a question for him even if he does improve second off the bench, trainer is 1/23 over the last year ($0.99 ROI) and Alderson keeps the call.

Hopped at the start costing him early position and managed to pass some tired foes down the lane to finish in 5th, victor Grand Warrior won a route on the dirt at Fort Erie in his last; adds Lasix and switches to the grass for his second career start, Palmer is clicking at a 20% win rate this meet and is 0/4 on the synthetic to turf angle, his sire Yorkton was 3/4 in turf tilts and is 16% with his offspring sprinting on the grass (25-4-3-2) with an AWD of 6.9f, 5lb apprentice Douglas is in the irons - wildcard.
