Chased the pace and was no match for today's rival Apollo Ten in the turf debut last September; got a layoff after that and he came back with an improved effort to break his maiden with a 77 Beyer in the 3yo debut; held on narrowly there after contesting the pace; has switched barns since then and moves into a tougher race.

Finished a pretty good second to the quick No Nay Mets in his career debut sprinting on turf; won a couple of synthetic sprints after that, then also race well on dirt at the end of the year; moved back to turf at Keeneland last time and improved again in the Palisades; versatile colt is a bit underrated.

Was an impressive debut winner over this distance in England as a 2yo, after which he ran in three very tough stakes races; stateside debut came in a tougher stake than this one at Churchill, where he finished up well from last and earned a field-best 84 Beyer; dangerous.

Maiden win first time on turf came in a race that was dominated up close, though he ran well in that spot and was game to prevail; failed as the favorite in the Atlantic Beach before getting a break, then scored in his 3yo debut when able to make the lead going shorter at Gulfstream, where he raced with Lasix on; well-bred colt has plenty of room to improve for top connections and doesn't need the lead to be effective.

Debuted for a $40k claiming tag, where he put a real scare into a 1/5 favorite before just missing; has only gotten better since then, though all of his form has come on dirt; had an excuse two back when bumped hard at the start and winding up back off the pace over a speed-favoring track; was a convincing winner last time after rating and then firing up the inside; might be biting off more than he can chew in the turf debut, but he is bred for this surface and his form is better than it looks.
